This system provides fast access to a complete set of employment tools in one website where job seekers can browse job postings, find education and training, and complete resumes and state applications.

The Governor presented different industries and certain employers that are hiring in each region of Texas and announced that many companies — including H-E-B, Amazon, and Randalls — are hiring statewide. Governor Abbott also discussed additional resources available through the 28 local workforce development boards located throughout the state of Texas. The local workforce solutions offices are also available to employers of all sizes who can receive assistance in recruiting, identifying, and hiring qualified individuals. These services are available to both employers and job seekers at no cost.

Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (VOADs)

- TDA is working on expediting some existing TEFAP/Trade Mitigation/Bonus Buy orders (i.e., moving orders up from May to April or June to May, etc.).

- While this may be useful for some food banks, these orders were already in the pipeline to meet EXISTING need in their communities (pre-COVID-19).
- The expediting of orders does nothing to meet any additional need due to COVID-19, and would mean that the food banks would have less resources in June, once these are depleted.
- Additional TEFAP purchases from the Families First and CARE Acts are not expected to arrive at food banks until July, at the earliest.
- Aside from the possibility of transitioning USDA commodities from school districts (NSLP) to food banks (TEFAP), no additional USDA commodities will come to food banks to help them meet the increased need in April – June.
