

ANGIE CHEN BUTTON

The State of Texas House of Representatives

January 11, 2019

Friends,

On Tuesday, January 8th, I had the privilege of being sworn in as the Representative for District 112 in the Texas House for the 86th Legislative Session. The district serves parts of Richardson, Garland, Sachse, Rowlett, Wylie and Dallas in Dallas County. I am so honored to serve our community and this great state. I look forward to working with you on critical challenges facing Texas.

The opening day of the 86th Legislative Session began with the official swearing in ceremony. The first order of business was to elect a Speaker. The Texas Constitution requires us to choose one of the 150 members to serve as Speaker of the House. As presiding officer, the Speaker maintains order during floor debate. Additionally, the Speaker assigns committee appointments and is responsible for referring bills to the appropriate committee.

I was happy to join my colleagues in electing Speaker Dennis Bonnen to serve as the Speaker for the 86th Legislative Session. Speaker Bonnen is from Angleton, Texas and has represented the constituents of House District 25 since 1997.

I was honored to join Speaker Bonnen on the dais as he was sworn in as Speaker.

As the legislative session progresses, please feel free to visit me in my capitol office. If you are planning on coming down to your state capitol, please email me at angie.button@house.texas.gov to let me know that you are coming, and I would be happy to arrange a tour for you and set aside some time to speak with you.

Please feel free to contact me or a member of my team with any questions or concerns you may have. We are here to help in any way we can.

I was truly honored to have my family to join me as I took the Oath of Office to serve as State Representative for House District 112.

It is an honor to serve as your State Representative. Please continue to communicate your views on issues that are important to you.

Sincerely,

Angie Chen Button
