Even though we had last Friday and this Monday free to be with our families during the Easter Holiday, this four-day week has been packed with interesting debate and exciting events at the Texas Capitol.

We began Tuesday with a piece of legislation, HB 1451, by my district neighbor, Chairwoman Senfronia Thompson, meant to protect dogs, cats and the breeders who are acting legally. I was proud to stand with her on this bill. We addressed several other issues that day, including one piece of legislation, HB 5, by Chairwoman Lois Kolkhorst. This bill establishes the legal framework for Texas to join other states in an Interstate Health Care Compact.

Wednesday was another long day. We debated Chairman Burt Solomons, HB 150, or the Redistricting map for the Texas House of Representatives. Because this can be a very personal issue for members, we planned to and only addressed that one issue this day. At nearly 3 AM Thursday morning, we took an initial vote of 92 Yeas, 53 Nays and 5 Present, Not Voting. The final map passed Thursday with a vote of 92 Yeas, 54 Nays and 3 Present, Not Voting. If you are interested in seeing more information about the Redistricting process or the final map voted out of the House, please visit <http://www.tlc.state.tx.us/redist/redist.html>, or call my office with questions.

Thursday and Friday, we debated several sunset bills, including the Texas Railroad Commission, the Texas Youth Commission and the Texas Department of Transportation. We will convene again on Monday at 10 AM.

Please take a few minutes to look over my newsletter to see what we have been up to recently, If you have any questions, please contact my staff at the Capitol office at 512-463-0520. And remember you can always follow the occurrences of the House at www.house.state.tx.us.

Sincerely,

Dan Huberty

Capitol Visitors

This week, I was proud to welcome 4th grade students from the Christian School of Kingwood to their Texas Capitol. It was a treat to have them visit me on their field trip to Austin.

Easter at the Texas Capitol

It was a very special treat to have Janet and the kids with me last week. They came to Austin for Thursday for an Easter Egg Hunt on the Capitol Lawn and to see me at work on the House floor. And Marcel, the pet monkey from Dylan's class, also come to visit. I really enjoyed having them with my in Austin
